

Save the Date for the 14th Annual College Planning Forum

This free full day conference is designed for students in high school with disabilities, their parents and school personnel. Are you a student with a IEP, 504, or learning challenges? Then this day is for you! There will be resources and giveaways that will help you navigate your road to college.

March 3, 2018
8:00 AM to 1:30 PM
Providence College
Ruane Center for the Humanities

Sponsored by:
Office of the Dean of Undergraduate Studies—Providence College
RI Regional Transition Centers
RI Department of Education Office of Student, Community and Academic Support
The RI Parent Information Network
Department of Human Services, Office of Rehabilitation Services

Save the Date!

Registration Information will be sent out after the New Year!
The registration will be open on The RI Parent Information Network (RIPIN) site at www.ripin.org
Questions please contact
Kerri Collins at: Kcollins@westbaycollaborative.org

An example of the day

A College Planning Forum
Providence College

TIME	WORKSHOP NAME
8:00-8:30	Registration and Coffee
	Welcome: J. David Sienko, Director, RIDE, OSCAS
	THE FRESHMAN EXPERIENCE What to expect as you transition from high school to college - A Professional and Personal Perspective Keynote 1: JACKIE MACKAY & DR. WANDA INGRAM The Professional Perspective
	Break
	Session 1
	Navigating Admissions & Accessing Accommodations Local college Admissions and Disability Services Advisors
	Break / Room change
	Session 2
	Parent/ Professional Session – Exploring the Role of Family RI Parent Information Network
	Student Session - Preparing for my independence
	Gather FREE Boxed lunch
	Hear from recent College Graduate Michael M. A Student Perspective
	Session 3: College Student Panel Personal Transition Experiences
	Session 4: College Financial Planning
	Break
12:45-1:30	Session 5: Transition to College Using Assistive Technology