She started her career as an English teacher (for 15 years) and then went on to be an administrator (athletic director, director of the California Partnership Academy, the Associated Student Body director, Dean of Students, restorative justice practices coordinator, & assistant Principal). FALL FIELD TRIP!

On their big day out, some students from Ms. A's & Ms. C's classes visited Adams Farms in Cumberland on Tuesday October 25th. Our students enjoyed a hands-on experience with mini horses, chickens, goats, llamas, pigs and a cow in the petting zoo. There were duck races to win and a corn maze to escape in. The children enjoyed the playground with tires and tubs to slide through. Each student was able to pick a pumpkin in their pumpkin patch. On the way back to school they also enjoyed a McDonalds lunch.

Fall Spirit Week!

For our Fall Spirit Week, both students and staff participated and really went all out! They showed their school spirit on days like: costume day, crazy hair or hat day, PJ day, sports day, and class color day. Students were also able to paint their pumpkins on Friday to take home for Halloween!

Students and staff are looking forward to our next spirit week in December which will be of the same silly fun!

Here is the lineup for Dec's Spirit Week:

12/19: Class Colors Day
12/20: Ugly Sweater Day
12/21: Holiday Character Day
12/22: Holiday Hat/Headwear & Socks Day
12/23: PJ Day

Positive Behavior Intervention Strategies (PBIS)

Your student earns "Caught Ya's" every day for all the big & little things they do that are worthy of positive praise and support. Examples of students caught being good are :

- saying "please" & "thank you"
- helping a friend out
- helping their teacher
- listening
- following directions

How can you help as a parent or guardian?

- remind them each morning to get as many 'caught ya's' as they can!
- ask them when they come home how many "caught ya's" they earned
- continue to praise them for the good work they are doing each day!
- lessen their sugar intake with food sent from home and before they come to school
